RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets decreased by $28.4 million to $367.4 million from December 31, 2019 to June 30, 2020. The Fund had net sales of $0.2 million for the period. The Fund paid distributions totalling $0.5 million while the portfolio's performance decreased assets by $28.1 million. Series W units returned -10.1%, after fees and expenses for the six-month period ended June 30, 2020. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 1.3%. The benchmark is the S&P 500 Total Return Index (the Benchmark).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series W units, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

As the COVID-19 outbreak became a global pandemic, the longest bull market in U.S. history ended abruptly with the fastest onset of a bear market ever. Investors began the period with guarded optimism about the global economy, which appeared to be recovering from a manufacturing slump. Equity markets then crumbled from record highs in February as it became evident the virus was not contained within China and that governments would voluntarily shut down their economies to slow its spread - an unprecedented event.

Central banks provided liquidity while acknowledging that monetary policy had its limits and that fiscal policy needed to be more supportive. The U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) cut short-term rates to zero and provided other forms of liquidity to keep credit markets functioning. The precipitous drop in stock prices continued unabated, however, until March 23 when the Fed announced unlimited purchases of Treasury bonds while Congress passed a massive $2 trillion spending bill.

Stocks rebounded from there as investors looked past a steep drop in earnings. Sentiment improved as the rate of COVID-19 infections eventually declined and countries began gradually reopening their economies, although infections in the U.S. picked up again in June.

Security selection was positive primarily in the communication services and financials sector. This factor was offset however by both selection and a less-than-benchmark weight in the information technology sector, which was up 20.7% for the period. A modest allocation to cash in a positive market environment also detracted somewhat from relative results.

During the period, we purchased several new companies that fit well with our emphasis on cash generation and optimal capital deployment including, Dollar General Corp., Dropbox Inc., Lam Research Corp., Merck & Co., McCormick & Company, Nexstar Media Group, Northrup Grumman, Restaurant Brands International, Thermo Fischer Scientific and Walmart Inc.

Companies sold included Applied Materials, Boeing Company, Charles Schwab Corporation, Huntington Ingalls Industries, Occidental Petroleum Corporation, Pfizer Inc., Raytheon Technologies Corporation, WEC Energy Group and Ventas Inc.

Overall, the Fund underperformed its benchmark for the period.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

A significant takeaway for the period is that growth trounced value and equity factors were very volatile. This should present an opportunity for active managers who focus on stock picking, as the biggest winners year-to-date were speculative growth stocks trading at high valuations.

As a result, we believe it is important to continue to invest in high-quality companies with stronger balance sheets, high returns on invested capital and positive cash generation. Many are now trading at more attractive valuations as a result of the recent market sell-off. Companies that fit this profile will be in a better position to recover quickly when the economic recovery commences.

Management Report of Fund Performance for the period ended June 30, 2020

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's semi-annual and annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on unitholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period.

(5) This information is provided for the period ended June 30, 2020 and the years ended December 31.

PAST PERFORMANCE

This section describes how the Fund has performed in the past. Remember, past returns do not indicate how the Fund will perform in the future. The information shown assumes that distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the relevant Series of the Fund. In addition, the information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following charts show the Fund's semi-annual and annual performance for each of the periods shown and illustrate how the Fund's performance has changed from period to period. In percentage terms, the charts show how much an investment made on the first day of each financial period would have grown or decreased by the last day of each financial period, except where noted.

¹ 2017 return is for the period from May 1, 2017 to December 31, 2017.
